

The Countdown To FIT Show Is On

The countdown to FIT Show 2022 is officially on. And when the doors open on the UK's only dedicated trade show for the window, door, hardware and flat glass industry, The Installer wants you to be fit for FIT Show...so here's our preview and guide.

FIT Show returns to the NEC Birmingham from 10-12 May 2022 and will be bringing every link in the fenestration supply chain back together for the first time in more than three years.

The organisers have worked closely with the industry to ensure that FIT Show 2022 delivers a showcase of the latest products and innovations in windows, doors, glass, hardware and associated home improvement products including conservatories, smart home tech, roofing solutions and outdoor living products.

Where & When

Tues 10 May: 10.00-17.00
Weds 11 May: 10.00 - 20.00 (Networking night)
Thurs 12 May: 10.00 - 16.00

Who'll be there?

Over 200 brands will be on display including the likes of door manufacturer Doorco, window accessory expert Glazpart, window systems giant Kommerling, Roseview Windows, lantern roof and bi-folding door expert Made for Trade, Morley Glass, Selecta Systems, Parkside Group, Cortizo, Ultraframe, Veka and for fabricators, machinery giants Haffner Murat, Stuga, Emmegi and Addison Saws. New brands such as composite decking supplier Ronjack, metal door manufacturer Strong-door and modular steel outbuildings manufacturer Telluria will also be exhibiting. They'll be joined by FIT Show first-timers ICB Fabrications, Exlabesa, Checktrade, Compdor and Solar Calibre Doors.

Why visit?

When FIT Show returns, it will be the first European trade show for the glass and glazing industry for more than three years. If you fabricate, specify or install windows, doors, hardware or any of the associated home improvement products, you need to be part of FIT.

This is your FREE ticket to see the very latest products and services on the market, all under one roof, across three days.

Learning programme

The FIT CPD approved learning programme will tackle the latest industry issues through a combination of seminars, panel debates and demonstrations. The FIT Show learning programme will directly address the latest changes to Building Regulations, including Part L, F, O & Q, with input from industry experts from the likes of the GGF, FENSA and CERTASS.

Register to attend free sessions including:

- 'Preparing for changes to Building Regulations – meeting Part L, O & Q' – GGF.

- 'The future of competence' – Jon Vanstone, Chair – Interim Industry Competence Committee.
- 'The importance of third-party certification for fire doors' – Kevin Underwood, Technical Director, British Woodworking Federation.
- 'Preparing for changes to Building Regulations – meeting Part F' – GGF.
- 'Ironmongery & fire safety' – Douglas Masterson, Technical Manager, Guild of Architectural Ironmongers.
- 'Standards and legislation affecting flat entrance doorsets' – Patricia Sowsbery-Stevens, Chair of the Timber Doorset Group, Door & Hardware Federation.
- 'Five ways to turn your data into cash' – Elton Boocock, MD, Business Pilot.
- 'How to be seen on social media by potential customers, without spending a penny' – David Glenwright, JS Social Media.
- 'Preparing for changes to Building Regulations – meeting Part L' – John McComb, Technical Services Director, Reynaers.

The full programme can be viewed on the link below. There are limited spaces available for each session and visitors are encouraged to register early to avoid disappointment.

www.fitshow.co.uk/seminars

Top Five Reasons To Plan A Trip To FIT

Do you need to prioritise taking time off the tools to visit a trade show when you are so busy? Here are the arguments why you should.

1 – Over 200 Brands, All Under One Roof

Get ready to see over 200 brands display the very latest products and materials for use across domestic, commercial, private and public sector building and renovation projects.

2 – Save Money & Mileage

Save time trawling the length and breadth of the country trying to find the best products and suppliers on the market – they will all be at FIT Show.

3 – Do You Fancy A Late Night Lock In?

The doors to FIT Show will be open until 8:00pm on Wednesday 11 May – with free drinks on the menu.

4 – Try, Test & Demo

Not only will you be able to see the latest products up close, you will be the very first to see them. FIT exhibitors are planning more new product launches at FIT Show than any previous year. You'll be able to test out the latest products and smart home technology, as well as watch live demos.

And if you're feeling confident in your own abilities, there will be opportunities for you to roll up your sleeves and take on the experts with live time challenges. You might even win some prizes!

5 – It's FREE

It's not just free access to see the best in the business, a trip to FIT Show has so much more to offer. There will be a CPD approved learning programme with over 30 hours of seminars, demonstrations and panel discussions all delivered by industry experts.

Times

Tues 10 May: 10.00-17.00
 Weds 11 May: 10.00 - 20.00 (Networking night)
 Thurs 12 May: 10.00 - 16.00 www.fitshow.co.uk