

5 Reasons To Choose QANW

To kick start the new year QANW, one of the UK's leading providers of insurance backed guarantees, have compiled a list of 5 reasons why you should choose them.

We've Wide range of work types covered

Through membership of QANW members can also register work types other than the ones that they register through their Competent Person Scheme. Members can register conservatories, replacement conservatory roofs, roofline, car ports and much more for an IBG. Members can do this simply by logging into the QANW members' area and selecting the appropriate work type for the job. If you also do commercial works: good news QANW can offer members an IBG for this type of work as well. QANW have been providing IBGs for commercial installations on a contract by contract basis for over 15 years.

Members' Area

Last year following feedback from members QANW launched a new members' area which allows members to do more than ever before. Some of the new features which were made available to members are:

The QANW App

Following the launch of the members' area, QANW have designed an App to allow members to manage jobs on the go. What does the App do?

- Add new jobs.
- View/edit existing jobs.
- View rates.
- Filter facility to search for a specific job.
- Sign off jobs

The App is an industry first and is linked to the members' area so any changes/updates will automatically update on both platforms meaning members don't need to worry about duplicating tasks on both platforms.

Membership Benefits

All members of QANW on confirmation of their membership will be asked to select a membership level; QA Standard, QA Plus or QA Premium. Each of which provides members with different access/discounts to a number of growing membership benefits carefully selected to make the day-to-day running of your business easier.

Operations Team

Throughout last year QANW completed a large scale internal training project throughout the Operations Team to create a 'one team' ethic. The aim of which was to create a team who can answer any questions that may come their way.
